

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ABC Fashion Show Returns to Danville March 5

DANVILLE, PA — MARCH 5, 2026: The ABC Fashion Show: Anything But Clothes event returns to Danville this Thursday, March 5, 2026, at the Pine Barn Inn, promising an evening of high-energy creativity, community fun, and wildly imaginative fashion. Hosted by the Danville Arts Council, the annual ABC Fashion Show challenges participants to transform everyday materials into wearable art. From cardboard and cans to plastic and duct tape, designers will showcase jaw-dropping ensembles made from (you guessed it) anything but clothes. Organizers encourage the community to purchase tickets!

Event Details:

Date: Thursday, March 5, 2026

Location: Pine Barn Inn, Danville

Doors Open: 6:00 PM

Show Begins: 7:00 PM

Important Ticket Information: Pre-sale tickets are $25, while tickets purchased at the door will increase to $30. Advance purchase guarantees admission and offers the best value for attendees.

Attendees can expect an entertaining evening featuring: A live runway show of Anything-But-Clothes creations, People's Choice voting, an auction featuring donated items valued at more than $1,000. A cash bar and complementary refreshments are also offered.

Tickets are available now at visitdanvillepa.org - simply click on events!

Proceeds from the show support the Danville Arts Council's year-round community programming, including the Summer Concert Series, Artist Expos and Receptions, Third Thursdays in Canal Park, free Kids Crafts at Spring Fling, the Fall Arts & Crafts Festival and Hometown Holiday Market, Healthy Halloween, and live music at the Ferry Street Growers' Market. The ABC Fashion Show is generously sponsored by Geisinger, the G-Pride Employee Resource Group and the Pine Barn Inn. We thank the community for its commitment to inclusion, creativity, and engagement, which helps bring this wildly imaginative runway show to life while supporting the arts right here in Danville.