

Villager Realty Announces Agents of the Quarter for Q3 2025

Villager Realty, Inc. is proud to recognize our exceptional Realtors® who exemplify professionalism, teamwork, and dedication to client service. Each quarter, we celebrate the individuals who go above and beyond and this quarter, we are delighted to honor our outstanding agents for Q3 2025.

Pam Whitenight, of our Northumberland Office, has been named Villager Realty's Agent of the Quarter for Q3.

Pam has not only demonstrated impressive growth in her production this quarter, but she continues to lead through service. In addition to her success with clients, Pam holds leadership positions within Villager Realty and the CSVBR, along with committee involvement at PAR — all while mentoring fellow agents and managing her team with grace and expertise. We are truly proud to honor her for her many talents, her commitment to excellence, and her passionate dedication to both Villager Realty and the real estate industry as a whole.

From the Danville Office, Drew Sassaman earned his nomination for his exceptional listing and sales performance, as well as his invaluable support to colleagues in marketing and technology. Drew's ability to seamlessly connect with clients both through cutting-edge digital tools and in-person engagement highlights his adaptability and professionalism. He consistently exemplifies what it means to be a trusted, responsive, and forward-thinking Realtor®.

Representing the Lewisburg Office, Samantha Guetherman was nominated for her remarkable momentum during her third quarter with Villager. Sam's growing client base, increasing showings, expanding expertise, and her fresh perspective all speak to her dedication and rapid professional growth. "Sam is a wonderful representative of Villager Realty," said Karr, "and we are thrilled to see her continued success."

"As a company, we are deeply appreciative of the experience, energy, and insight these individuals bring to Villager Realty," Karr added. "Knowledge here is never hoarded — it's encouraged, shared and celebrated."

Please join us in congratulating Pam, Drew, and Samantha for their outstanding achievements and contributions to Villager Realty. Their professionalism, passion, and commitment continue to set the standard for excellence in real estate.
